

Events from the Elizabeth Kubler-Ross Foundation (EKRF)

Thursday, September 30th

The wonderfully wise in all things end of life, Barbara Karnes, RN will join us for our first Movies@EKRF on Thursday, September 30th, from 6pm to 7:30pm PST. We will be showing her short film New Rules for End of Life Care, which is a must see for anyone/everyone who will be navigating the care of a loved one, or their own end of life experience. Please register here: New Rules for End of Life Care.

Tuesday, October 5th, from 10am – 11:30am PST

Jon Seskovich, RN will be speaking on one of his favorite topics, Navigating Uncertainty. Jon works to support those navigating medical issues, illness, and end of life. Please register here for what will be an informative, and compassionate morning: Navigating Uncertainty

Tuesday, November, 10am to 11:30am PST

Join us for Ken Ross' talk How it All Began, which will be a bird's eye view of Elisabeth's work, and legacy from her son's perspective. Ken is also the President of the Elisabeth Kubler- Ross Foundation. Register here: How it All Began
